

The Lord's Prayer.

Then shall be sung :

HYMN No. 10.

FOR all The Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confess'd,
Thy Name, O Jesu, be for ever blest. Alleluia!

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou in the darkness drest their one true light. Alleluia!

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!

O blest communion : fellowship Divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine ;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west ;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest ;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!

But lo ! there breaks a yet more glorious day ;
The Saints triumphant rise in bright array :
The King of glory passes on His way. Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl, streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

Fideles usque ad Mortem.

" These all died in faith, not having received the promises but having seen them afar off."

Order of Service.

When all have taken their places there shall be sung

The National Anthem.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

GOD save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.

Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Then shall be sung :

HYMN No. 129.

ON the resurrection morning
Soul and body meet again ;
No more sorrow, no more weeping,
No more pain.

Here awhile they must be parted,
And the flesh its Sabbath keep,
Waiting in a holy stillness,
Wrapt in sleep.

For a while the tired body
To its resting-place is borne,
Till there breaks the last and brightest
Easter morn.

But the soul in contemplation
Utters earnest prayer and strong,
Breaking at the Resurrection
Into song.

Soul and body re-united
Thenceforth nothing shall divide,
Waking up in Christ's own likeness Satisfied.

O the beauty, O the gladness
Of that Resurrection day,
Which shall not, through endless ages,
Pass away!

On that happy Easter morning
All the graves their dead restore,
Father, sister, child and mother
Meet once more.

To that brightest of all meetings
Bring us, Jesu Christ, at last,
To Thy Cross, through death and judgment,
Holding fast.

S. BARING GOULD.

Then shall be said :

Let us pray for the Welfare of the School.

ALMIGHTY God, the Fountain of wisdom and the Giver of every perfect gift; without Whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; send down, we beseech Thee, Thy blessing upon this School, and prosper the designs of its Founders. Enable us, by Thy grace, faithfully to discharge the duties of our several stations, remembering the solemn account which we must always give before Thy judgment-seat. More particularly we pray, that the seeds of Learning, Virtue and Religion sown in this School may bring forth fruit abundantly to Thy glory and the benefit of our fellow-creatures. These and all other blessings, for them and for us, we humbly ask, that we may use them to Thy honour, Who livest and reignest ever one God world without end. Amen.

Here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.
All things work together for good to them that love God.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.

This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. . . . Death is swallowed up in victory.

God shall wipe away all tears . . . there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain : for the former things are passed away

Then shall be sung :

PSALM XXIII.

THE Lórd | is my | Shepherd : thérefore | can I | lack nothing.

2 He shall féed me in a | green | pasture : and lead me fórtH
be- | -side the | waters . of | comfort.

3 Hé shall con- | -vert my | soul : and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness | for His | Name's | sake.

4 Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death * I will | fear no | evil : for Thou art with me * Thy róD and Thy | staff | comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me * against théM that | trouble | me : Thou hast anointed my head with oil and my | cup | shall be | full.

6 But Thy loving-kindness and mercy * shall follow me all the dáys | of my | life : and I will dwell in the hóuse | of the | Lórd for | ever.

Glory be to the Fáther and | to the | Son : and | to the | Holy | Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is nów and | ever | shall be : wórd
without | end | . A | men.

Then shall follow the Lesson :

WISDOM III., verses 1—6.

BUT the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God and there shall no torment touch them.

2 In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die : and their departure is taken for misery.

3 And their going from us to be utter destruction : but they are in peace.

4 For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their hope full of immortality.

5 And having been a little chastised, they shall be greatly rewarded : for God proved them, and found them worthy for Himself.

6 As gold in the furnace hath He tried them, and received them as a burnt offering.

Then shall be sung the Anthem :

I HEARD a voice from Heaven saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the Dead which die in the Lord : Even so saith the Spirit ; for they rest from their labours.

(Choir only.)

Address

BY

THE HEAD MASTER.

Then shall be sung :

HYMN No. 68.

BEFORE Jehovah's awful Throne,
Ye nations, bow with sacred joy ;
Know that the Lord is God alone ;
He can create, and He destroy.

His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men ;
And when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to His fold again.

We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise ;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise.

Wide as the world is Thy command,
Vast as eternity Thy love ;
Firm as a rock Thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

ISAAC WATTS.

Then shall be said the following Thanksgiving :

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we bless Thy holy name for all Thy servants departed this life in Thy faith and fear, and specially for those of this School whom we remember at this time. We give Thee thanks for all that was lovely and pleasant in their lives and for their supreme devotion in yielding up the same. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

We bless Thee for Thy grace that enabled them to answer their Country's call, to fight a good fight and to be more than conquerors through Him that loveth us.

We beseech Thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of Thy heavenly Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for the grace of Consolation :

O GOD of pity, we commend to Thy loving, tender heart the near and the dear ones who have been bereaved. Grant to them and to us all to learn the lessons of Thy Fatherly discipline, and to be assured of a joyful re-union, where death shall be no more and where sorrow and sighing shall flee away. And this we beg for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.
