

ISLEWORTH & SYON SCHOOL

Year 11 Examinations & Compulsory Sessions Summer 2019

Instructions for Candidates

- Ensure that you arrive for your examination punctually.
- For morning sessions, this means arriving no later than 8.30am.
- For afternoon examinations, you must arrive at 1.45pm at the latest.
- Know where your examination venue is - consult your personal timetable. For most examinations, you will gather in the Gym prior to the start of your examination. Make sure you consult the digital signage screens and the printed lists around the school so that you are in the right place.
- Ensure that you adhere to the Appearance Policy, as outlined on the school's website. If you fail to do so, you will be sent home to change before you are permitted to sit your examination.
- Bring a bottle of water with you to stay hydrated throughout the examination. In accordance with examination board rules, these bottles must be see-through with no labels.
- No mobile phones, smartwatches or MP3/4 players - no potential technological/web-enabled sources of information. Possession of unauthorised items is a serious offence, and could result in DISQUALIFICATION, not just from your examination but from your overall qualification.
- Clash candidates - If you have two or more examinations scheduled in the same session, you will have been sent a letter explaining how this will work, attached to your Individual Candidate Timetable.
