Dear Parent/Carer,

Instrument Lessons - Autumn Term 2020

Whilst Isleworth & Syon School ensures its staff and students are safe by putting in place measures to protect against COVID-19, we have had to revise our provision of music instrument lessons for students. The school has run through a full week of our new timetable and are in the process of seeing how we can accommodate music instrument lessons for the Autumn Term. With current safety restrictions in place and our music practice rooms unavailable due to the building work taking place, we have fewer options available.

Despite these challenges, we are still trying to provide creative opportunities for your son/ward this term. In order for us to move forward we are asking all parents/carers who wish for their son/ward to take music instrument lessons to complete an Expression of Interest Form by clicking here.

Please note:

- Individual instrumental lessons will predominately be run remotely via Zoom. These will be organised with parents/carers to take place at a scheduled time out of school hours. Many students have had success with this manner of working over the period of lockdown.
- We will continue to monitor the current situation and will respond, if required, to guarantee the safety of students and staff if any local or national restrictions are put in place.
- We will not ask for payment at this stage. This will only happen once we have confirmed the arrangements for your son/ward.
- The Expression of Interest Form must be completed by 25 September.

The lesson options and costs are outlined below.

TYPE (LENGTH)	PER TERM	COST
Individual (20 min) remote lesson on Zoom	10 x 20 mins	£135 per term
Individual (30 min) remote lesson on Zoom	10 x 30 mins	£200 per term
Paired (30 min)	10 x 30 mins	£100 per term
Group (30 min)	10 x 30 mins	£50 per term (not available for piano and drums)
