

Could you be a Trustee for our Charity IvybridgeLink?

IvyBridgeLink the charity for the BridgeLink Community Centre in Isleworth is looking for people to become trustees. Do you have:

- An interest in the local area and an understanding of the needs of local people
- The ability to advocate for under-represented groups
- A willingness to help with fundraising and promoting centre activities
- A desire to help our staff & volunteers run this vibrant community hub
- Useful skills to support the growth and development of the charity

The BridgeLink Centre is a vibrant, successful community centre at the heart of Ivybridge estate. We partner with a wide range of organisations including Sky, The National Lottery, Henry Smith Foundation, Brentford FC Community Sport Trust, and the NHS to host and deliver a wide range of activities.

The centre has a wide-ranging children and young people's offer including youth activities, homework clubs, holiday programmes and a nursery, along with drop-in advice services, community coffee mornings, a community pantry and support groups.

As a Trustee you'd be expected to:

- promote the community centre and represent the IvybridgeLink charity
- help scrutinize accounts, set policies and attend bi-monthly meetings
- support the centre's management team to deliver projects and run events

To find out more contact: Rob Kemp (Chair) on rob.kemp@bridgelinek.org.uk